

Why do leaves change color in the fall?

When summer ends and fall begins, the days become shorter and the nights longer. Trees begin to shut down the food-making process of photosynthesis. Chlorophyll, which makes the leaves green, begins to disappear from the leaves, and the oranges and yellows begin to show. Short days and cool nights cause the leaves of some trees to turn red.